

FREE MOTHER OF "PHANTOM TWINS." Mrs. Hazel McNally's smile of victory after being acquitted of murdering her twin dolls. She immediately purchased these two new ones.

"LOCHINVAR RODE OUT OF THE WEST." In this case Frank Rawlings, of Independence, Mo., shown on the left, kidnapped, it is alleged, Miss Ida Mae Haskins, Missouri beauty contest winner, shown on the right.

HAD NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH. Passengers and crew of the ill-fated "C-2," photographed just before the flight which ended in disaster. Seven of the above were injured, but no fatality occurred.

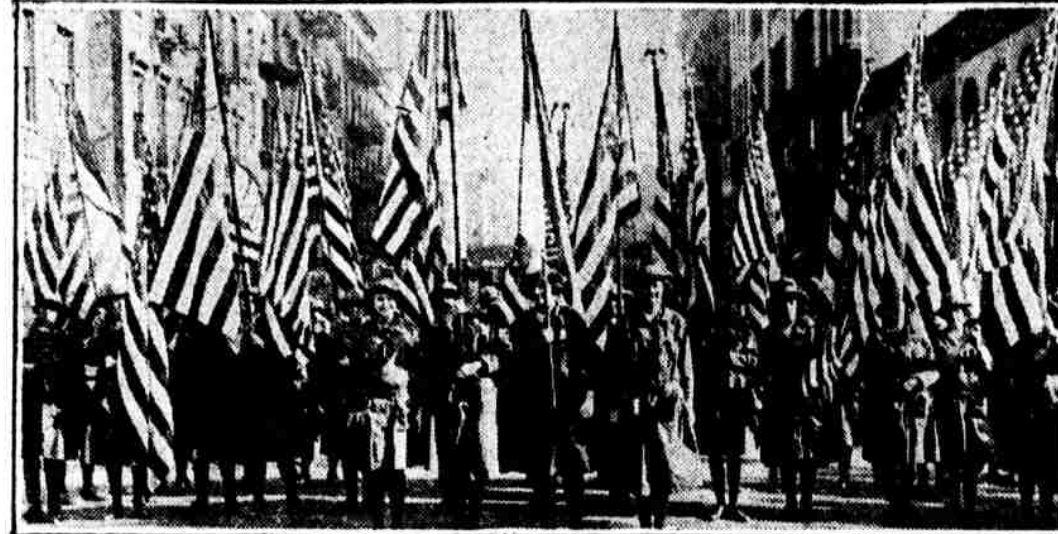

AMERICA'S LARGEST AND BEST "BLIMP" destroyed while leaving hangar. Photographed a few moments before explosion, showing the huge bag caught on the hangar door, causing accident.

OVER THE HILLS AND FAR AWAY galloped the steeds at the Rose Tree Hunt on the last day of that picturesque event, which formed a welcome diversion from the numerous formal teas which have occupied society folk of late. An exciting moment of the farmers' race is shown on the left. The three fair spectators pictured on the right are Miss Isabel Gittings, Miss Mary Bartow and Miss Clair Gittings.

NICKEL INSURANCE is the latest fad in Washington. Above is a traveler taking out a policy.

FIFTY AMERICAN FLAGS headed the parade of over seven thousand Girl Scouts, at the opening celebration of the National Girl Scouts' week in New York. Above is shown the head of the parade as it marched up Fifth avenue.

MISS LUCY FREEMAN, national long distance swimmer, trains on land for long swims.

DEDICATION CEREMONIES at Elizabethtown, where the Philadelphia Memorial Hospital of the Masonic Home was turned over to the Pennsylvania Masons. Otto R. Hellman is the speaker.

SIR WILLIAM LETTS, British Sulgrave Institution, a strong ally of Lloyd George.

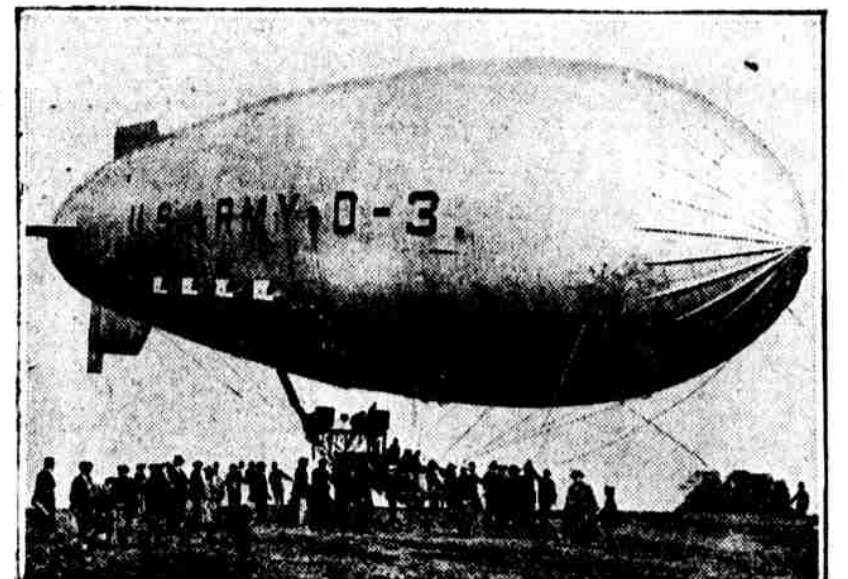

LOVERS OF HORSES TURNED OUT IN FORCE for the semi-annual meet of the Philadelphia Riders and Drivers' Association, held at Valley Green. A scene on the Upper Wissahickon during the review.

AMID COLORFUL CEREMONIES Dr. Marion Edwards Park was inducted as president of Bryn Mawr College. Pictured above with Dr. Rufus Matthew Jones.

GOVERNOR SPROUL DELIVERED THE ADDRESS during the dedication exercises at the Media flying field, Saturday. Twenty-five planes and a blimp joined in the exhibition featuring the ceremonies. The army blimp, D-3, on hand for the celebration, shown on the right, aroused much curiosity. Over four thousand persons were present.

BARONESS OLGA SONIA SORDOBIT was the recent bride of Samuel Cowan Disbrov.

MISS GEORGIA BULLOCK, Los Angeles woman judge.

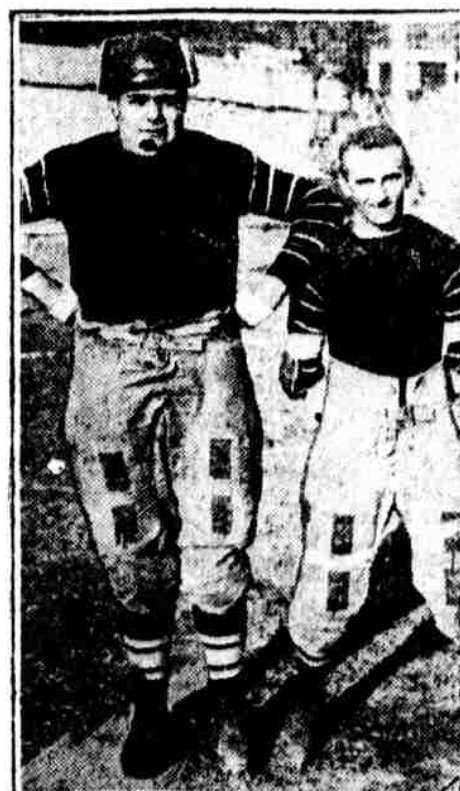

SHAH OF PERSIA, Sultan Ahmed Kadjar snapped on recent visit to Spain.

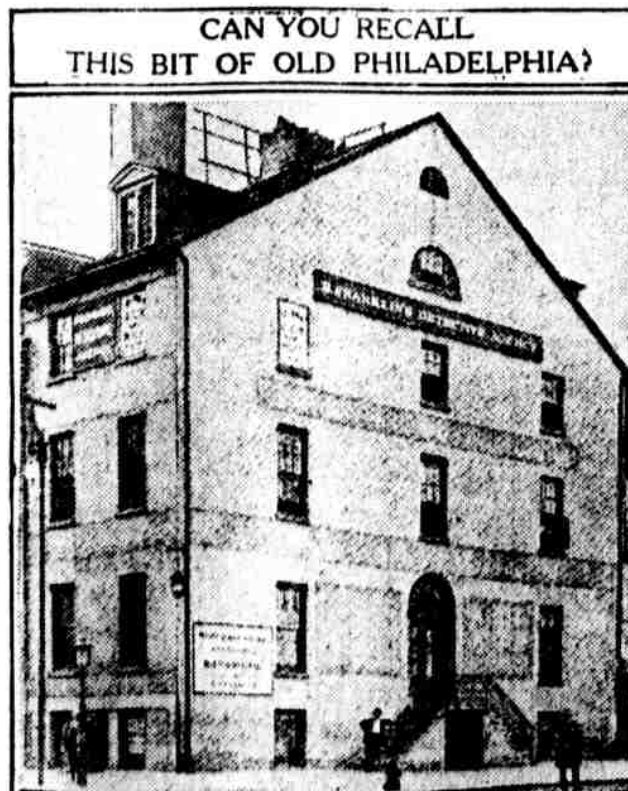

MISS E. KOCH, one of fair Frankford popularity contestants.

MISS M. WHITE is another Frankford popularity contest entrant.

SMALLEST FOOTBALLER, weight 119 pounds, Max Moffey, College of the City of New York, played against Drexel Institute Saturday.

S. E. CORNER BROAD AND CHESTNUT in 1875. The Real Estate Trust Company's building replaced the old Cornucopia restaurant and hotel pictured above.

LONE SKIPPER sails from Florida to Manhattan in 16-foot boat. Capt. C. G. Hilton, who made the trip, successfully weathered all gales.

MISS E. DRAKE hopes to win Frankford popularity contest.

JEANNE D'ORLIAC, noted French poetess, winner of a coveted French Academy prize.

MISS HYODO, Japan's first "Bird Woman," awarded pilot's license in Flowery Kingdom.

